News From District Grammar Schools

AT CROCKER

The pupils of Room 2 recently welcomed a newcomer, Phyllis Callsen, from Redwood City.

This week the students of Room 3 wrote letters to their classmate, Leo Bricker. Leo is in the hospital recovering from an accident. Everyone will be glad when he is well enough to return.

Norma Boscolo, Room 6, spent Sunday at Rutherford visiting friends.

AT WOODROW

Kathryn Summers, high sixth grade, was very fortunate in witnessing the launching of the General James McRae, a transport which was named in honor of General McRae. Kathryn's father, Captain Summers, who is a chaplain in the Army, received the honor of giving the invocation.

The launching took place at Richmond Yard 3.

Room 5 enjoyed a film on National parks, which they found a great aid in their social studies as they are studying the unit, "National Parks and Monuments."

Room 15 saw a very educational film entitled "Flax to Linen."

Room 9 had an excellent film on the raising of coffee. Reel 2 showed the processes the coffee bean goes through before it is packed and labeled.

The basic needs of industrial development are being discussed by Room 4 in its study of coal and iron production of the United States.

Room 14 saw some interesting slides on gold mining. These pictures contrasted early mining in the days of '49 with the present day method of extracting gold from the ore.

AT JEFFERSON

Last week children of Jefferson elementary assisted the Colma A. W. V. S. Juniors in their drive for funny books and records to be sent to soldier-convalescents in neighboring hospitals. Over 525 funny books in excellent condition were brought in; 40 good records, and 320 defective records, that will be turned in for their scrap value.

Children in the fifth grade entered heartily into observance of "Kindness to Animals" week. They discussed care of animals and learned six important rules dealing with care of pets.

Monday, James Marshall and Stanley Sage, class librarians in the fourth grade, prepared and gave an interesting demonstration of three scientific principles. Each demonstration was preceded by reading aloud a description of the experiment, which was then performed.

"Date Conscious"? You'd Better Be--

Here is a list of those ration dates, which make calendar-watchers of all local housewives, motorists, or, in fact, anyone who wishes to eat, drive his car, or buy an occasional pair of shoes.

November 1—Book Three "airplane" series stamp No. 1 became valid; good for one pair of shoes until further notice.

January 16—sugar stamp No. 30 in War Ration Book Four became valid and will be good for buying 5 pounds of sugar indefinitely.

February 27 — blue stamps A8, B8, C8, D8, E8 (Book Four) to be used with ration tokens came into use for processed foods.

February 27 — red stamps, A8, B8, C8 (10 point value each) in Book Four became valid, good indefinitely for meats, fats, cheese, butter.

March 12—red stamps D8, E8, F8 (Book Four) became valid for purchase of meats, oils and fats.

March 22—"A" gasoline coupons No. 11 became valid.

March 26—red stamps G8, H8, and J8 in Book Four were validated for 10 points each and will be good indefinitely.

April 1—stamp No. 31 in Book Four became valid for purchase of 5 pounds of sugar.

April 1—blue stamps F8, G8, H8, J8, K8 became valid for purchase of processed foods; good indefinitely.

April 9—red stamps K8, L8, M8, Book Four, became valid for purchase of meats, fats, oils, cheese and butter.

April 23—red stamps N8, P8, and Q8, Book Four, were validated for use in buying meats, fats, oils, cheese, and butter.

May 1—Airplane Stamp 2 in Book Three became valid for purchase of one pair of shoes; good indefinitely.

May 1—blue stamps L8 through Q8 became valid for purchase of canned fruits and vegetables (Book Four).

May 7—red stamps R8, S8, T8 became valid, each worth ten points.

May 20—until this date, children's shoes, sizes 12 1-2 to 3, costing $1.60 and less, will be ration free.

May 31—tire inspection deadline for C coupon holders.

June 21—A-11 coupons for gasoline expire.

June 30—tire inspection deadline for B coupon (gasoline) holders.

BROWN POINTS FOR WASTE FATS

For every pound of fat a housewife turns in to her meat dealer or other fat salvager, she receives two meat points and 4c a pound.

CANNING SUGAR NOW AVAILABLE

Housewives may now get 5 pounds of canning sugar by using Stamp No. 40 in War Ration Book Four, OPA has announced, and additional canning sugar later will be available on application to local boards. Stamp No. 40 will be good 13 months, through February 28, 1945.

Some Vegetables Point-Free

Tomatoes, corn, asparagus, beets, leafy greens, spinach, blackeye peas, and garbanzo beans have been added to the point-free list of processed foods through June 30, the Office of Price Administration has announced. Points have been reduced on spaghetti sauce; soups, grape and tomato jams and preserves; apple, grape, mint and plum jellies; bakers' jellies and fruit butters. Points have been increased on cranberries and cranberry sauce; tomato juice in large containers; canned or bottled dry varieties of beans (excluding soy, blackeye and garbanzos); tomato catsup and chili sauce; raspberry and strawberry jams and preserves. Reductions were made to move out last year's stocks before new supplies are available in great volume.

Butter Point Value Reduced

The ration point value of creamery butter has been reduced from 16 to 12 red points a pound, the OPA has announced. Margarine has been lowered from 6 to 2 points per pound. The new values are effective through June 3, 1944. This reduction was made possible by seasonally increased production.

Red Stamps Now Must Last Longer

Housewives were reminded by the Office of Price Administration today that red stamps R8, S8 and T8 which became good, Sunday, May 7, for buying meats, fats and dairy products must last four weeks instead of the customary two.

The only items now requiring red points are beef steaks, except flank, and roasts, butter, margarine, cheese and cheese products and evaporated milk.

Last week OPA made point free all cuts of pork, veal, lamb and mutton, all cuts of beef except steaks and roasts, and all variety meats, sausage, ready-to-eat meats and canned meats and canned fish.

Because of the wide selection of meats now available without the expenditure of red points—57 per cent of all items previously requiring red points were made ration free last Thursday—it was decided that hereafter blocks of three red stamps with a total value of 30 points will be validated only every four weeks instead of every two weeks.

Accordingly, red stamps U8, V8 and W8 will become valid for use, Sunday, June 4, 1944, instead of May 21, 1944, as previously announced.

Announcement

The undersigned attorneys, maintaining offices in the First Township, have been frequently called upon to express a preference for candidates for the office of Superior Judge, Department No. 1, in the forthcoming May 16th election.

We take this means of informing our clientele and friends that we unanimously endorse the candidacy of the present incumbent, Honorable Maxwell McNutt, for re-election.

Our reasons are uniformly:

That Judge McNutt is a jurist of admittedly outstanding ability;

That he has faithfully and diligently discharged the duties of his highly important office;

That he has been fair and impartial to all;

That he has consistently exercised a considerable personal influence for the betterment of public affairs in San Mateo County.

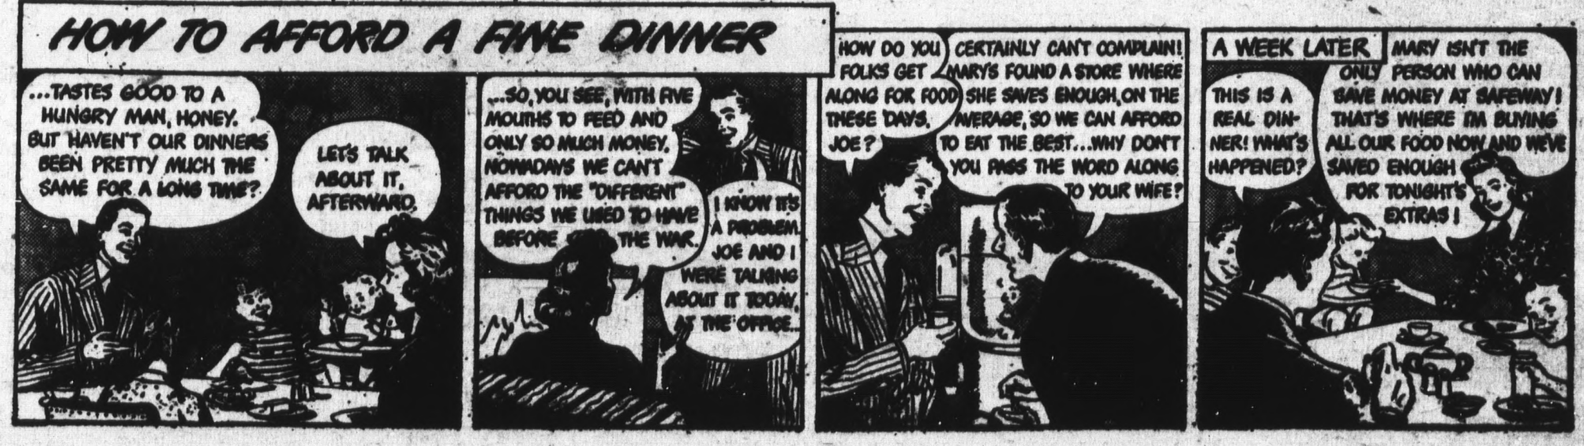
HOW TO AFFORD A FINE DINNER



...TASTES GOOD TO A HUNGRY MAN, HONEY. BUT HAVEN'T OUR DINNERS BEEN PRETTY MUCH THE SAME FOR A LONG TIME?
LET'S TALK ABOUT IT, AFTERWARD.
...SO, YOU SEE, WITH FIVE MOUTHS TO FEED AND ONLY SO MUCH MONEY, NOWADAYS WE CAN'T AFFORD THE "DIFFERENT" THINGS WE USED TO HAVE BEFORE THE WAR.
I KNOW IT'S A PROBLEM, JOE AND I WERE TALKING ABOUT IT TODAY, AT THE OFFICE...
HOW DO YOU FOLKS GET ALONG FOR FOOD THESE DAYS, JOE?
CERTAINLY CAN'T COMPLAIN! MARY'S FOUND A STORE WHERE SHE SAVES ENOUGH, ON THE AVERAGE, SO WE CAN AFFORD TO EAT THE BEST...WHY DON'T YOU PASS THE WORD ALONG TO YOUR WIFE?
A WEEK LATER
THIS IS A REAL DINNER! WHAT'S HAPPENED?
MARY ISN'T THE ONLY PERSON WHO CAN SAVE MONEY AT SAFEWAY! THAT'S WHERE I'M BUYING ALL OUR FOOD NOW AND WE'VE SAVED ENOUGH FOR TONIGHT'S EXTRAS!

BACON! What a joy to have plenty of it available! And you know, bacon has many fine uses for lunch and dinner, in addition to time-honored "bacon for breakfast." Here are some suggestions which I hope you'll try:

BACON AND VEGETABLE PLATE

1 lb. bacon
6 tomato halves
1 head cauliflower
Green beans
⅛ cup bacon drippings
1 tbsp. vinegar
¼ tsp. paprika
Salt and pepper

Broil bacon until evenly crisped. At the same time place tomatoes in the broiling oven, dot with butter or margarine, and heat. Cook cauliflower and green beans separately in boiling salted water. Make Savory Dressing: Melt bacon drippings, add vinegar and paprika. To serve, arrange cauliflower in center of platter and top with Savory Dressing. Alternate green bean bundles and tomato halves around cauliflower. Border with slices of bacon.

BACON CORNMEAL MUFFINS

1½ cups enriched flour, sifted
¾ cup yellow cornmeal
1 tbsp. baking powder
¾ tsp. salt
2 tbsps. sugar
2 eggs, well beaten
1 cup milk
⅛ cup melted bacon fat
6 slices cooked bacon, chopped

Sift and mix all dry ingredients together. Combine beaten eggs, milk and melted bacon fat, add to dry ingredients with chopped cooked bacon, stirring only enough to dampen flour. Fill greased muffin pans two-thirds full and bake in moderately hot oven (425° F.) about 20 minutes. Makes 8 muffins.

LIMA BEAN & BACON CASSEROLE

2 cups lima beans (dry)
Salt and pepper
1 cup tomatoes
½ large onion
6 slices bacon

Soak lima beans, then simmer until tender. Season with salt, pepper, add tomatoes and finely chopped onion and place in a 2 qt. casserole. Add strips of bacon over the top and bake in moderate oven (350° F.) for 30 minutes.

Serves 5 to 6.

BACON-CORN PUDDING

4 strips bacon
3 tbsps. bacon fat
3 tbsps. enriched flour
1 tsp. salt
⅛ tsp. white pepper
1 tbsp. sugar
1½ cups milk
2 cups whole kernel corn
2 eggs, beaten

Fry bacon crisp, and crumble. Stir flour, salt, white pepper and sugar into bacon fat. Add milk slowly, cooking over low heat until mixture thickens and boils. Stir in corn, beaten eggs and crumbled bacon. Fill 6 greased baking cups, set in pan of hot water and bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 45 minutes.

Serves 6.

CAULIFLOWER WITH BACON SAUCE

1 lb. bacon
2 cups white sauce
Seasoning
1 head cauliflower

Broil or fry 7 slices of bacon until crisp. Cut in tiny pieces; add to white sauce (combine ¼ cup enriched flour and ¼ cup bacon fat, and add 2 cups milk). Season with salt and pepper and pour over whole cooked head of cauliflower on chop plate. Serve garnished with the additional slices of crisp bacon.

Serves 6.

POLITICAL NEWS -- NATIONAL - STATE - SAN MATEO COUNTY

Dr. O'Neill

Friends of Dr. A. E. O'Neill, candidate for election as supervisor from the Third district by the county at large, today claimed new support for the Redwood City civic leader as his campaign swung into its final days.

Dr. O'Neill, overseas veteran of World War I, and a leader in the movement for rehabilitation of returning veterans of World War II, has visited virtually every section of the county to acquaint the electors with his record.

The entire county will vote on the office of Third district supervisor at the consolidated primary elections, Tuesday, May 16.

Dr. O'Neill, declared his supporters, has headed the re-employment committee of Redwood City Selective Service Board 106 for three years past, thus having taken leadership in the movement for providing jobs for veterans of this conflict, which is only now beginning to take shape in other sections of the state.

In bidding for the voters' support of Dr. O'Neill, his friends pointed out that he is a family man—has two children; is successful in his chosen profession, and has a keen insight into county affairs—as a member of and former chairman of the county health and welfare board for five years.

First to file, Dr. O'Neill is well qualified and has the experience necessary to fit him for the position he seeks, his friends said, particularly in the field of public health, in which he has volunteered his services these many years. He served 18 months in France in the last war, is active in veterans' affairs, and has the interests of San Mateo county servicemen at heart, his supporters added.

Evans A. Fletcher

With the May 16 primary election just around the corner, the race for supervisor in the Third district, is warming up today to fever pitch with four contestants seeking the post, vacated when Supervisor John W. Poole withdrew, after years of service, from the picture. One of the most vigorous of the campaigners for the post is Evans A. Fletcher, Redwood City councilman, and widely-known county business man.

Speaking of his campaign, Fletcher today expressed his appreciation for the assistance given to him in every part of the county, and expressed confidence over the outcome Tuesday. He expressed himself on one of the most important issues of the campaign—the post-war era.

"So far as I am concerned, I believe my principal task as supervisor is to see to it so far as I can, that this county is prepared to take its rightful place in the great picture of the future. People here are not interested in the past, in feudalism or partisan politics, they want to know what of tomorrow. We are no longer a 'cow' county, but a very important part of a great metropolitan area—the gateway to the vast Pacific trade marts of the future. Will this county be prepared to take its place in this picture, and to solve the many post-war problems with which it will be faced?

"Thousands of servicemen and women will be returning home with victory, and this time they will not sell apples on street corners. We, and I mean this county, must be ready and eager to do our part toward aiding in their re-habilitation. If not we have let them down. This to me is the most important thing any public official should be concerned with at the present. It will be largely a community problem, and each county must have public officials capable and far-sighted enough to be ready to meet the issue, and the time is now. Our destiny is at stake."

Judge McNutt

Basing their arguments squarely on his 11 year record on the Superior Court bench and 30 years of active legal practice, supporters of Judge Maxwell McNutt for re-election, May 16, today pointed out that his endorsement by the vast majority of attorneys in San Mateo county, many of whom have had decisions rendered against them, attests to the fact that every case is decided on the law with the utmost fairness.

Speaking of the often discussed Retirement Act members of the bar pointed out that legislators, in framing the act, stated it would be decidedly against the public interest to deprive the state and the judiciary of the benefits of the advice and experience of judges as soon as they reached the retirement age, and that many men are in the prime of life at that age and at the height of their mental powers. Also that the experience of older judges, gained through years of service in a highly specialized field, was of great benefit. That, they said, is why the act was not made compulsory.

Substantiating their declaration they pointed to Supreme Court Justices Holmes, Brandeis and Hughes who performed much of their best work in their later years.

Members of the San Mateo County Bar association have stated that, if the May 16 election is to be decided on the basis of ability and experience, Judge McNutt will be returned to office without question.

NO LIQUOR ON MAY 16

Commissioner George R. Reilly, member of the State Board of Equalization for this district, today called to the attention of all dealers in alcoholic beverages in his district, that during the month of May there will be two important elections. All places dispensing alcoholic beverages must remain closed during the hours the elections are being held.

First is the primary election, Tuesday, May 16, which will be general throughout the state, Reilly said, and cautioned all dealers to ascertain the hours the polls will be open in their respective communities, and to remain closed during that time.

The second will be a school election, Friday, May 19. These elections are not held in every section of the district, the board member said, and the hours the polls will be open will vary in sections where the elections are held. The licensee must ascertain, Reilly declared, what these hours are, and keep his establishment closed during that time.

Violations of the closing law will result in drastic penalties, Reilly said.

Golden Treasure

THERE'S AN AIR of romantic renaissance in the golden Tuscan lace bonnet worn by CBS star Muriel ("Mary Marlin") Kirkland. Under the raised front brim, taffeta ruffles pick up or accent costume colors. Light in weight and head-hugging in fit, this open-crown model promotes the wearable qualities for which its designer, Sally Victor, is famous.

NOW AT DALY CITY THEATRE

An ominous and suspenseful moment in Alfred Hitchcock's production of "Lifeboat" by John Steinbeck, which stars Tallulah Bankhead, and opens tonight at the Daly City theatre. Featured in the thrilling 20th Century-Fox drama are John Hodiak, Henry Hull, Mary Anderson, and Hume Cronyn (shown with Miss Bankhead above), as well as William Bendix, Walter Slezak, Heather Angel and Canada Lee.

F. B. I. Lists Jobs Open In San Francisco

Nat Pieper, special agent in charge of the San Francisco office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, announced, this week, that there are positions available in the F. B. I. at San Francisco and Washington, D. C. These positions include those of clerk, typist and stenographer with salaries ranging from $1752 to $2190 per annum.

Jobs available in Washington, D. C., in addition to clerical positions, are: radio operator, translator, cryptographer, laboratory technician, fingerprint classifier and special agent. All positions are open to men and women with the exception of that of special agent. Both male and female personnel are needed in San Francisco for clerical positions. Proficiency in typing is helpful but is not a requirement.

Full information concerning these positions can be obtained at the Federal Bureau of Investigation, 111 Sutter street, San Francisco, California.

Nutritious Feather Dumplings

By Frances Lee Barton

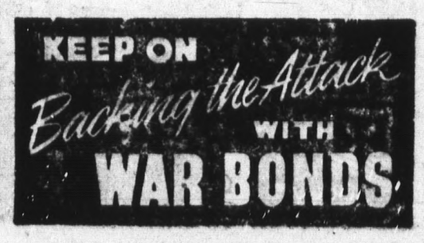
A rich beef stew with feathery dumplings carries us back to the days when grandmother's dinners filled our young hearts with joy. Making dumplings has become a lost art in far too many homes. Try the recipe below and your home will immediately leave this category:

Feather Dumplings for Beef Stew

1 cup sifted cake flour; 1¼ teaspoons double-acting baking powder; ½ teaspoon salt; 6 tablespoons milk; 2 teaspoons melted fat.

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift again. Add milk and fat. Then stir quickly and lightly until a very soft dough is formed. Drop by small spoonfuls on simmering stew or fricassée, making sure each dumpling rests on meat or vegetables. (Dumplings should not settle in the liquid. If necessary pour off excess gravy, returning it to stew after the dumplings are cooked.) Cover kettle tightly and cook gently 14 minutes. Do not remove cover while dumplings cook. Makes 6 to 8 dumplings.

Note: For the fat, use a little fat skimmed from stew in making these dumplings. It gives extra good flavor.



"Lifeboat" Comes To Local Theatre

No picture in Hollywood history ever came closer to being an actor's dream than Alfred Hitchcock's production of "Lifeboat," by John Steinbeck, which opens tonight at the Daly City theatre.

Starred in the 20th Century-Fox picture is Tallulah Bankhead with William Bendix, Walter Slezak, Mary Anderson, John Hodiak, Henry Hull, Heather Angel, Hume Cronyn and Canada Lee in featured roles.

In the first place, the director is Alfred Hitchcock, the master of suspense.

The story is by John Steinbeck, who wrote such powerful and memorable triumphs as "The Grapes of Wrath" and "The Moon Is Down."

There are only nine roles in the picture. Not one is a "bit." All nine are dramatic and all nine are important to the story.

And the entire action of the story takes place in a boat exactly 26 feet long and eight feet wide. That means that no member of the cast is ever more than 26 feet from the camera.

But Tallulah Bankhead, William Bendix and their seven fellow-passengers did not get these enviable breaks without paying a price.

Each day each member of the cast had to sit for hours in the lifeboat.

In the mighty and suspenseful saga of men and women adrift in an open boat with no law but the wild sea and their own tempestuous emotions, Tallulah Bankhead is starred in the role of "Connie Porter," the beautiful, mink-coated foreign correspondent, after a ten-year interlude in which she appeared on Broadway. William Bendix is "Gus," the jitterbugging sailor from Brooklyn; Walter Slezak—the Nazi U-boat commander; Mary Anderson—"Alice Mackenzie," the American nurse; John Hodiak—"Kovac," the handsome merchant seaman on whom Connie puts her brand in lipstick; Heather Angel—"Mrs. Higgins," an English survivor from the torpedoed ship; Hume Cronyn—"Stanley Garrett," the young radio operator; and Canada Lee—"Joe," the heroic steward.

Anderson

That there should be elected to public office men who will not be guided by the selfish interests of minority pressure groups—groups not motivated by a desire to achieve the most good for the most people but rather by a burning ambition to dominate and control—was emphasized by Congressman Jack Anderson in a radio broadcast from Washington over KQW, Saturday evening.

"It has always been my policy to ignore the demands of such organizations and this will be my policy as long as I hold public office," said Anderson.

The speaker said that most of those who are backing him now, in spite of past disagreements on certain issues, are taking a broad view of his entire service as a Representative in Congress.

"On the other hand," he said, "there are those who would be opposed to my re-election no matter how I voted, because at one time or another, I had opposed a bill which they favored, or because I had supported a bill to which they were opposed."

As an illustration of his point Anderson cites the attitude of "official labor organizations" in the district, who are opposing him notwithstanding his record of sixteen votes considered favorable to labor as against 9 opposed.

Gilbert Ferrell

Gilbert D. Ferrell, district attorney and candidate for Superior Judge, was occupying the favorite position, and accorded the top lead for the post, according to some county political observers, who stated that Ferrell would carry San Mateo county by a good-sized plurality.

In commenting upon the trend which has become decidedly noticeable during the past two weeks, Elmo Phillips, member of the Ferrell committee had this to say: "There is a definite and decided feeling upon the part of the people, that no person should perpetuate himself in office, and also a feeling that two six-year terms should be sufficient for judge."

In many instances the voters feel that when an aged person reaches the age of 70 and can retire at a handsome salary of several thousands of dollars each year for life, he should do so, the Ferrell committee said.

Harry Parkman

High tribute to State Senator Harry L. Parkman in the way of an impressive complimentary vote on his re-election as state senator is being planned by his friends throughout the county today. They declared plans are under way to give Parkman the highest vote of his long career.

Parkman went to Sacramento first as assemblyman in 1926, and served three terms, when the state was re-apportioned and this county was given a state senator of its own. Parkman was the county's first senator, and has served in that capacity ever since.

Many of San Mateo county's major highways, schools, and other state improvements have come through Parkman's work, his friends declared. They pointed to his fine record of achievement in getting things done for the county, and said his record entitled him to the support of the entire county.

The State Senator, who is unopposed for election this year, declared today he is deeply grateful for the fine support, confidence and cooperation he has always received from the voters of the county. He added he was proud to have had the opportunity of serving the county so many years as its representative in Sacramento.

The next four years, Parkman explained, will be one of the most critical periods in state history and plans are now being made to insure every consideration for returning servicemen and women and to insure security from want during any period of economic distress immediately following the war. The state's financial position, he declared, was in fine shape, and said he expected early completion of a strong post-war program of governmental work.

ing; will not these corporations have pulled out of the red on that?

Mr. BUCK. I think it is mere theory, so far as I get it. I have just one more question to ask you. You were a candidate for Congress in the 1936 election in California?

Mr. JOHNSON. That is right.

Mr. BUCK. And, of course, you made a good campaign, but you did not succeed?

Mr. JOHNSON. No, sir; I was down there about a year from San Francisco.

Mr. BUCK. You were endorsed at that time by the Townsend organization?

Mr. JOHNSON. Yes, sir.

Mr. BUCK. And you were running on the Townsend program?

Mr. JOHNSON. In the final election; but in the primary they fought me bitterly.

Mr. BUCK. You finally persuaded them, anyway. And you were opposing Representative Thomas F. Ford at that time?

Mr. JOHNSON. Yes, sir; I was.

Mr. BUCK. Representative Ford received 63,635 votes, Mr. Campbell, the Republican, received 25,497 votes and you running on the Progressive ticket, received 12,874 votes. There were some scattering votes as well. I am just wondering how you interpreted that as to the strength of the endorsement of either Dr. Townsend or your own association? It was not very helpful, was it?

Mr. JOHNSON. I might explain it in this way. I was down there from San Francisco a little over a year. And you know how difficult it is for a man coming in from the outside, from San Francisco especially, running for Congress in Los Angeles. I was not known in the district. I was known as the attorney for the labor commissioner to the State generally, but I was not known in that district. I ran merely with the idea that possibly I might be sucked into the national picture. . . . . That was my purpose in running for Congress—to get a little publicity on it and get back here. And my strategy succeeded.

FREDERICK F. HOUSER

UNITED STATES

SENATOR

HOUSER Says . . .

"Our principal objective today must be to win the war but at the same time it is our duty to see to it that our democracy is kept alive right here at home. After the war it will take United States Senators and Congressmen with real backbone and courage to restore and maintain our Constitutional form of government. The powers which have been gradually absorbed and usurped by a centralized bureaucracy, must be retrieved by a determined, fearless Congress, if the torch of liberty and freedom is to be kept burning in the United States."

HOUSER . . .

Is the only Republican in the race for U. S. Senator who can wipe out the last vestige of the Olson-Patterson-Downey regime in California by defeating Sheridan Downey—the former running mate of Upton Sinclair—and give to California another Senator who can bring the problems of California to the attention of the Senate in a forceful and able manner.

(EDITORIAL)

Judge McNutt Leader In State's Judiciary

In Superior Judge Maxwell McNutt, San Mateo County has one of the most able judicial figures in the entire State of California. The Advance feels that it is an honor to recommend to the citizens of the county his re-election to the office which he now holds.

Judge McNutt is recognized by legal authorities throughout the state and in the legal circles of our federal courts as a man possessing a legal mind of rare ability. His record of fair and just decisions in Superior Court Department No. 1, at the courthouse in Redwood City, bears volumes of testimony to this fact.

The fact that his re-election is urged in writing by more than 55 leading attorneys-at-law, practicing and residing in San Mateo County, is evidence of the high esteem in which he is held by the men who have worked with him day in and day out through the past 11 years.

Before his election to the judgeship in 1932 Judge McNutt for many years had been an outstanding practicing attorney. His record shows that he successfully handled cases before superior courts, federal courts, state courts and the supreme court. He has appeared professionally before practically every high commission of the state and federal government, including the Railroad Commission, the Corporation Commission and Interstate Commerce Commission.

In 1931 he won the overwhelming support of the people of San Mateo County in his brilliant handling of the famous "Flood case," one of the most colorful and historical cases in the history of the state and a case which attracted nationwide attention.

Judge McNutt, in addition to his private practice, was for several years assistant district attorney of the City of San Francisco.

Judge McNutt has made San Mateo County his home for virtually his entire lifetime. He was born in San Francisco and spent his boyhood on his grandfather's farm near Menlo Park. He is a graduate of the University of California and the old Hastings College of Law in San Francisco.

The judge is an ardent student of the history of San Mateo County and the early history of California, maintaining a large library on this subject at his home in San Mateo.

Not only is Judge McNutt highly capable but his efficient conduct of his court, expediting cases as rapidly as possible, has kept the wheels of justice in San Mateo County turning steadily. He has made possible a court calendar where attorneys may always have cases scheduled at an early date. Such is not the case in other counties in the state.

We believe that this kind of performance of duty will be recognized by the citizens in the re-election of Judge McNutt at the primary election, Tuesday, May 16.
